Summary

As an individual who thrives on deciphering enigmas, I've found my place in a career as a software engineer and an avid supporter of free and open-source software. My aspiration in life is to consistently acquire knowledge and never cease learning.

My areas of expertise encompass TypeScript/JavaScript, React Native, React, Node.js, project management, application architecture, and practically any subject matter that pertains to those fields.

I am currently engrossed in Blender, Substance Painter 3D, Rust, and C++ in conjunction with Unreal Engine.
